

Communiqué

IN PRINT

Robert Reilly, firm managing director and resident in our Chicago office, authored an article that was published in the ABI Journal in the June 2010 issue. The title of Robert's article is "Valuing a Real Estate Undivided Interest."

Robert Reilly also authored an article that was published in the ABI Journal in the July/August 2010 issue. The title of that article is "Update on AICPA Professional Valuation Standards."

Robert Reilly also authored an article that was published in Summer 2010 issue of The Practical Tax Lawyer. The title of that article is "What Lawyers Need To Know About The Tax Considerations Of Employee Purchase of Close Corporation Stock."

IN PERSON

Robert Reilly delivered a speech to the Licensing Executive Society in Portland, Oregon, on August 3. The topic of Robert's speech was "Intellectual Property Valuation Analysis for Sale, Transfer, or License Purposes."

Robert Reilly will deliver a speech at the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) National Business Valuation Conference. The conference will be held on November 7-10, 2010, in Washington, DC. The topic of Robert's speech is "Valuation Issues in Shareholder Disputes."

Robert P. Schweihs, firm managing director, will be a co-presenter at the 45th Annual Heckerling Institute on Estate Planning January 10-14, 2011, in Orlando, Florida. Bob's topic is "Valuation of Closely Held Interests—Practical Issues." Bob will be co-presenting with John W. Porter, partner with Baker Botts LLP in Houston, Texas.

Michael McGinley, Atlanta office associate, co-presented at the ESOP Association—New South Chapter in Atlanta on August 26. The topic of Michael's presentation was "The Valuation Implications of Recession and Recovery." Michael's co-presenter was Howard Kaplan of Reliance Trust Company and Dave Williams of Schiff Hardin LLP.

Michael McGinley also hosted a roundtable discussion at the annual NCEO/Beyster Institute Employee Ownership Conference in Minneapolis on April 21. The topic of discussion was "Issues Related to Changing ESOP Financial Advisers."

Steve Whittington, Atlanta office associate, also hosted a roundtable discussion at the annual NCEO/Beyster Institute Employee Ownership Conference in Minneapolis. The topic of his discussion was "Changing Valuation Methods During Market Uncertainty."

IN ENCOMIUM

Trey Stevens, director of our suburban Washington, D.C., office, was appointed vice-chair of the International Board of Examiners for the American Society of Appraisers.

Robert Reilly recently received the prestigious Institute of Business Appraisers literary award for the Best Business Valuation Article of the year. Reilly received this literary recognition for the article entitled "Intellectual Property Appraisal During a Distressed Economy." That article was published in the 2009 Third Quarter issue of Business Appraisal Practice.