

Communiqué

IN PRINT

Robert Reilly, firm managing director, authored an article that appeared in the March/April 2013 issue of Construction Accounting and Taxation. The title of Robert's article was "Structuring the Construction Company Valuation Assignment."

Robert Reilly also authored an article that appeared in the March/April 2013 issue of the Journal of MultiState Taxation and Incentives. The title of Robert's article was "When Assessing Computer Software, Fair Market Value Does Not Equal Net Book Value."

Robert Reilly also authored an article that appeared in the Spring 2013 issue of Dunn on Damages. The title of Robert's article was "Intangible Asset Damages Due Diligence."

Robert Reilly also contributed to an article that appeared in the March 2013 issue of FVS Consulting Digest. The topic of that article was "Ask the Expert: What Do I Need to Know to Be an Effective Expert Witness?"

Robert Reilly also authored an article that appeared in the Spring 2013 issue of the American Journal of Family Law. The title of Robert's article was "Valuing Intangible Assets in the Marital Estate."

Robert Reilly also authored an article that appeared in the April 2013 issue of Business Valuation Alert. The topic of that article was "Valuation of Computer Software for Property Tax Purposes."

Robert Reilly also authored an article that appeared in the May 2013 issue of the ABI Journal, the American Bankruptcy Institute monthly publication. The topic of that article was "Income Tax Consequences of Debt Modification."

Robert Reilly also authored an article that appeared in the Volume 10, Issue 1, 2013 issue of the Journal of Property Tax Assessment

& Administration. The title of Robert's article was "Consideration of Functional and Economic Obsolescence in the Assessment of Industrial or Commercial Property."

IN PERSON

Robert Reilly will deliver two presentations at the Wichita State University's annual Appraisal for Ad Valorem Taxation conference July 28 through August 1, 2013, in Wichita. The topic of Robert's two speeches will be "Valuing Customer Relationships—Do They Have Value?" and "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Fair Value Accounting (But Were Afraid to Ask)."

Curtis Kimball, managing director located in our Atlanta office, will be teaching at the American Bar Association's "Skills Training for Estate Planners: Fundamentals" program at the New York Law School on July 16, 2013. The topic of Curt's section is "Selecting and Working with Appraisers."

Kevin Zanni, Chicago office manager, delivered a presentation at the State Bar of Wisconsin's 2013 Real Estate & Business Law Institute conference. The topic of Kevin's presentation was "Business Valuation: When to Use Various Methods."

IN ENCOMIUM

We are pleased to recognize that Charles Wilhoite, Portland office managing director, was awarded the President's Award from the Portland Business Alliance at their annual breakfast on May 14, 2013.

Robert Reilly is shown receiving a plaque at the American Bankruptcy Institute's 31st annual spring meeting in National Harbor, Maryland. Robert was awarded this publication recognition for his book A Practical Guide to Bankruptcy Valuation, which he co-authored with Dr. Israel Shaked.

